

Dear Bob,

3/17/00

Yesterday we had company until our early suppertime and I did not have time to look at the mail until after then. I read and enjoyed your letter of the 12th ~~pm~~ and its interesting disclosures. I reply in haste because this is one of the three weekly mornings I am due at the kidney dialysis center at 6 a.m.

If we had not had that company, I'd have written to thank you for that beautiful basket of grapefruit, a citrus I can have and enjoy, as Lil does. The friend, Don Gibson, is professor of sociology at the University of Pittsburgh. He brought me a copy of his just-published The Kennedy Assassination Cover-Up.
